

Betty B O N N E T T

SENIOR PROJECT DIRECTOR • MASTER FACILITATOR • SPEAKER

"Betty Bonnett is genuine, thoughtful and effective. That's just for starters."

As a Senior Project Director and Master Facilitator with over twenty years of experience, Betty Bonnett is a personal coach to leadership in significant, multi-national organizations. She is a sought-after speaker at leadership conferences for corporate, non-profit and government groups, and is regarded as world-class at installing The Pacific Institute's curricula. Her body of work includes successes across an impressive spectrum of industries.

Betty excels in working with leaders to accurately target The Pacific Institute's education and consulting processes and achieve outstanding results. She is a foremost resource in designing and implementing customized programs. Many international best practices, individual programs and processes are products of her creativity and experience. She has been described as "a living best practice" by colleagues and clients.

As a dynamic speaker, engaging facilitator, consultant and leadership coach for organizations throughout the country, Betty brings out the best in her audiences. Her knowledge of The Pacific Institute's concepts and her ability to apply them to real-life situations make her a popular and effective resource of the Speaker's Bureau.

"It was marvelous to watch your presentation. You delivered a knock-out punch, and the concepts you shared were repeated time and again throughout the rest of the conference."

"Without doubt the best I've ever seen, and certainly the only speaker we've invited to repeat at our next annual meeting."

Prior to affiliating her business, Corporate Training Advisors, with The Pacific Institute, Betty designed and produced training and leadership development programs for a variety of organizations.
