

Doreen L E C H E L E R

PROJECT DIRECTOR • FACILITATOR

Clients and colleagues alike describe Doreen as an Authentic and Inspirational Leader, an Engaging Presenter and an Insightful Problem-Solver.

Doreen's passion for unleashing the excellence in individuals, organizations and communities has earned her a "results-oriented" reputation. Whether it's coaching executive leadership, moving an organization toward higher performance outcomes, or developing constructive cultures that support strategic vision, Doreen has the keen ability to assess desired outcomes, current obstacles and the processes necessary to direct performance toward organizational success.

For more than 25 years, Doreen has employed her diverse cultural and organizational experience to help lead effective and self-motivating change in the areas of sales and marketing, manufacturing, government agencies, education, transportation, health care, communities, as well as international leadership.

Doreen is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in Business, and a magna cum laude graduate in Counseling from Wesley Theological Seminary. Among her leadership roles in the community, Doreen is a 1997 graduate of Leadership Denver, serves on the National Advisory Board for A Better Philadelphia, is a former Chair of the Leadership Denver Alumni Association, and former Board Member of the Denver Metro Chamber Foundation.

An accomplished writer and editor, Doreen has merited two national awards and three local awards.

Currently, Doreen resides in Harrisburg, PA with her husband Brent and son Nicholas.
